

Environmental waste disposal and disposal of electric equipment

Company TECH-TRADE, s.r.o. is, in conformity with applicable legislative requirements, member of integrated system waste service providers EKO-KOM a.s., www.ekokom.cz through which it contributes to environmental disposal of its waste. The company is further involved in collective take-back service RETELA, s.r.o. www.retela.cz.

We hereby wish ask our customers to be responsible and respectable to the environment. Please give your packaging and used electric equipment to the places designated for that purpose. Together we will contribute to protection of the environment.

Thank you.
